

BEAUTIFUL & ETERNAL

Transylvania

Wild nature, fortified churches, castles and traditions.

If you love wild nature or if you are interested in history, then Transylvania is a must to see.

You can explore inside the Carpathian Arch and meet the civilisation of the Western and Eastern Christianity in the very same place.

Transylvania is a beautiful timeless garden, guarded by majestic mountain peaks, lush green forests, mild green hills and pristine meadowlands.

Transylvania has one of the most beautiful culture in wood, old Romanian, Hungarian and Saxon traditions, unique folklore and a staggering variety of costumes and songs. Departure from Timisoara for one or two days, visiting Deva fortification, Hunyadi's Castle, Alba Iulia Fortress, Hermannstadt - Sibiu
